Step 3

About the Energy Ombudsman

We are hopeful to have resolved your complaint if you have followed steps 1 & 2. However if you are still not satisfied with the way we have handled your complaint. We will refer you to The Energy Ombudsman.

The Energy Ombudsman deals with unresolved disputes between energy companies and their residential and small business customers. You can refer your complaint to the Ombudsman if your business meets the following criteria:

- consumes up to 100,000kWh of electricity per year; or
- consumes up to 293,000kWh of gas per year; or
- has fewer than 10 employees;
- and has an annual turnover of less than €2 million.

They are independent, impartial and their service is free to you. You can find out more about them at www.energy-ombudsman.org.uk

When the Ombudsman can consider your complaint

If you do want to refer a complaint to the Ombudsman, there are time limits on when you can refer it to them:

- You must give us eight weeks to resolve the complaint first
- If we have made it clear that we have done all we can to resolve your complaint by issuing a deadlock letter, you have six months from the date of the letter to refer your complaint to the Ombudsman
- You must refer the complaint within nine months of making it to us.

What the Ombudsman can decide

If the Ombudsman finds that we are at fault, they may decide that we must give you any or all of the following:

- a service or some practical action that will benefit you
- an apology
- an explanation
- a financial award.

If your complaint is investigated and you decide to accept the Ombudsman's decision then the outcome of this is binding on us.
